

2010 GIRL SCOUT OVERNIGHT ADVENTURE

Friday & Saturday, May 7 & 8, 2010 or Friday & Saturday, May 21 & 22, 2010

GIRL SCOUT OVERNIGHTER & BADGE WORKSHOP

This event is not open to the public and is specifically designed for Girl Scout Troops and their leaders. Due to limited bathroom facilities, participation in the Girl Scout Overnight Program is limited to registered Girl Scouts, female leaders and chaperones. Male leaders are welcome to purchase daytime tickets.

Friday Evening Activities

- 4:00_{PM} Girl Scouts check-in across the street from Knott's Berry Farm at the rear entrance of Park Pavilion adjacent to Knott's Independence Hall.
- 5:00_{PM} Girl Scout Troops set up their tents in Park Pavilion.
- 5:30_{PM} Park Pavilion Picnic - Troops will enjoy a delicious Knott's Dinner Buffet which includes all-you-can-eat Mrs. Knott's Chicken, hot dogs, green salad, chips, fruit salad and unlimited soft drinks.
- 6:30_{PM} Badge Bonanza – Join Knott's Berry Farm's educational staff for an evening that is not only fun but also allows you to work toward badge requirements from Brownie Try-Its to Cadette Interest Projects.
- 8:00_{PM} Country Western Line Dancing - Everyone on your feet because we are going to learn some of the best line dancing moves out there with the help of a real pro.
- 10:00_{PM} Snoopy comes to tuck you in after you enjoy milk and cookies or some of our delicious signature boysenberry pie.

Saturday Morning Activities

- 7:30_{AM} Breakfast – Enjoy a hot and delicious breakfast including pancakes, bacon, cereal, fruit, yogurt, juice and coffee.
- 8:30_{AM} Break down tents and clean campsites.
- 9:00_{AM} Knott's Berry Farm will open for Girl Scouts and their families only for a scavenger hunt and some early ride time on some of our most popular attractions.
- 10:00_{AM} Knott's Berry Farm is open for the day for your enjoyment!
